E Komo Mai

Nā Haumāna O Hawai'i, Pacific University's Hawai'i Club, was founded in the Fall of 1959. Sixteen students from the islands of Hawai'i, under the guidance of Dr. Fred Scheller and Dr. A.C. "Hap" Hingston, decided to unify all of Pacific's Hawai'i students into one common group. These "students of Hawai'i" led by the club's first president, Tagay Kang, actively shared their island traditions by performing at various functions both on and off the University campus.

The club's membership grew rapidly, and by 1962, sixty members represented five of the eight Hawaiian islands. On September 28th of that historical year, President Ray Nishiyama received the official charter of "Nā Haumāna O Hawai'i."

Nā Haumāna O Hawai'i, or NHOH, boasts a very active membership and accomplished history. Active members not only participate in social functions, but are also involved with community service projects. In 1996, NHOH received television and news recognition in Hawai'i for hosting one of the most outstanding college lū'au in the Pacific Northwest. On April 11, 1998, the Senate Legislature of the State of Hawai'i recognized Pacific's Hawaiian club. On March 19, 2010, Senators Daniel Inouye and Daniel Akaka presented Pacific University's NHOH with a Congressional Record for their 50th Anniversary Lū'au.

As we enter our 56th year of being a prominent cultural organization on campus, our club has opened up membership to any individual interested in learning more about the Hawaiian culture. Our club's membership has doubled over the years and through social and community activities, members of NHOH continue to strive to acquaint the Pacific and Northwest community with Hawai'i – its people, culture, and the special meaning of Aloha.

A Warm Message

Aloha kāua and welcome to Nā Haumāna O Hawai‘i’s 56th annual lū‘au. Over the years, I have had the privilege in working with hundreds of wonderful young adults. The NHOH ‘Ohana is amazing. We have shared many fun moments together: slippery slides, snowboarding, swimming on the Oregon Coast, our annual lū‘au pre-show at Jennings McCall, intramural games and countless community service hours educating Oregon haumāna about Hawai‘i and its culture. We have made many friendships that continue beyond their time at Pacific.

The success of NHOH and lū‘au also depends on the many Pacific ‘Ohana who support and help us. They have learned the true meaning of the “Aloha spirit.” Our scheduling, set-up, facilities, custodial staff, Aramark, and the Stoller Center crews allow us to invade their facilities on an annual basis and we are truly grateful for their efforts every year. They are amazing.

I invite you to visit our lū‘au website below. Please be sure to explore the different relevant links on the left margin.

<http://www.pacificu.edu/studentlife/luau/index.cfm>

I look forward to working with and getting to know you!

NHOH Annual Lū‘au

Lū‘au is a time in our academic year when our ‘ohana comes together to celebrate and share our culture with the extended Pacific community. It is a collaborative effort of Pacific students, including faculty, staff, local community members, businesses, and family members from Hawai‘i.

During Spring semester, the club’s main activity is our lū‘au. Meetings start late in the Fall, with dance practices usually starting in the beginning of February. Traditionally, our lū‘au has always been the second Saturday in April, this year April 9, 2016. We usually perform a few pre-shows at elementary schools or senior centers in the community. This gives us a small taste of what the actual performance will be like. However, nothing compares to the lū‘au itself. Pacific University’s lū‘au is a culmination of many hours of hard work and many hearts coming together to share a unique aspect of our island heritage. Pacific University boasts the only completely student-run and student-directed lū‘au in the Northwest, attracting over two thousand people a year.

The event, open to the public, includes traditional Polynesian dance, music, and entertainment, preceded by an authentic meal in the University Center (UC) featuring island staples such as kalua pig, chicken long rice, teriyaki chicken, poi, haupia, coconut cake, and punch.

The meal is open between 4:30 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. in the UC on campus. The show will follow at 6:30 p.m. in the Stoller Center. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. for the reserved seating performance.

NHOH opens a Country Store in the Stoller Center the morning of lū‘au day and is open during the performance. Local products from the islands are sold at the store including cookies, chocolate covered macadamia nuts, lei, jams and jellies, clothing, Hawaiian Sun juice, and other treats. A Concession stand offers plate lunches and side dishes in the Stoller Center from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. on Saturday.

The True Meaning of ‘Ohana

Similar to the word Aloha, the word ‘Ohana can have many meanings. Perhaps not literally, as one may think, but the true nature of ‘ohana is a concept that envelops all aspects of Hawaiian life. ‘Ohana is directly translated to mean family. In the Hawaiian culture, the family is a unit in which all members act together as a unified body to achieve a common goal. This concept precedes written language in the islands. King Kamehameha, the unifier of the Hawaiian islands referred to his soldiers as pōki‘i, or younger brothers. This reference depicts the important relationship between those leading and those following. It is a brotherly relationship of trust, concern, and care.

It is this sense of family that gathers us together every year as we are a family on many different levels. The performers and students you see are a family as Nā Haumāna O Hawai‘i. Relatives who support these young men and women are also members of the family. We are all here together as a Pacific University ‘ohana, sharing our unique culture and enjoying what others have to share with us. In Hawai‘i, our family is the most important part of our lives. There is a saying, “‘Ike aku, ‘ike mai, kōkua aku, kōkua mai, pēlā iho lā ka nohona ‘ohana” which means “Recognize others, be recognized, help others, be helped, such is the family relationship.”

As the Pacific University and Nā Haumāna O Hawai‘i ‘ohana, we would

Parent Help at Home

Our parents have always been our biggest support. The biggest way in which they assist the NHOH club is through their involvement at home through their attendance at the monthly parent lū‘au meetings. Parent coordinators will host meetings to inform families about the work needing to be done and will communicate what student lū‘au chairs have to report on the progress of lū‘au on campus.

Additionally, there are many local supplies needed for our lū‘au. Parents help the club collect donations from friends, families, and local businesses for our event. When the supplies are gathered, parents assist in packing these items and sending them off on cargo to be shipped to Portland where the students will receive and transport it to campus. Parents are encouraged to check their email as it is one of the major lines of communication the club and parent coordinators have with the entire ‘ohana. Our families may also visit http://www.pacificu.edu/studentlife/orgs/nhoh/parents/meeting_schedule.cfm for meeting information and meeting minutes if they are unable to attend. Similarly, this site will provide a brief description of the lū‘au week events while a formal email will be sent to provide families with a detailed break down of where their help is needed and when their students will be rehearsing.

Parents will continue to play an important role in our students’ lives. The Spring semester not only brings a few months of cultural preparation and celebration for our students from the islands, but it also brings stress for some. School is still in session when lū‘au festivities commence. Exams are still scheduled and assignments are expected to be turned in. Parents are a big help during lū‘au through their continued love and support for their haumāna’s education.

Oahu Parent Lū'au Meeting Schedule

Meeting Schedule for 2015-2016 To Be Determined

Please check the NHOH lū'au website for updates on the schedule.

Parent Help at Pacific University

We are always grateful for the help our parents provide for us at home through all of the meetings they attend and the donations they make for our lū'au. For those who are able to join us on campus, their help is also greatly appreciated. Our parents continue to play an important role at Pacific University. They see that most of the behind the scenes aspects of lū'au run smoothly. Since students are still attending classes parents are needed to help decorate, prepare food, and unload and load trucks to transport dance props and materials to the Stoller Center (gymnasium).

The Friday before lū'au our parents are invited to campus where they attend a parent meeting. Parents will be given parent packets, which include parking permits, meal cards, and other important information for the week. Our parents' physical presence on campus brings home to Oregon for many of our students. They bring smiles and the warm aloha spirit that brightens campus.

As it will be explained in the detailed lū'au week schedule that will be sent via email, parents will be asked to help string lei, decorate the Stoller Center where the performance will be held, decorate the UC where the meal will be enjoyed, and help run the Concession stand and Country Store in the Stoller Center. There will be a number of committees that need assistance. NHOH is a student-run and student-directed event and parents are encouraged to seek out student leaders for better directions when they are able to help with set up and preparation.

Parent and Family Ticket Process

Lū'au tickets will be on sale for NHOH family members during a special presale period between February 17, 2016 and February 28, 2016. Visit this site to order tickets before the general public:

<https://www.boxofficetickets.com/>

Please watch for the instructional email.

The site allows you to reserve up to TWO complimentary tickets for immediate family members who have helped (either at home/or at lū'au) for a minimum of 10 hours. Purchase additional tickets for family members and guests who are attending the lū'au on this site. In addition to tickets, this site can provide one parking pass per family, one UC meal pass per family, and a special name tag for entry to the Stoller Center for the Friday night rehearsal and to a side entry on Saturday night for the lū'au performance (avoiding the long line in the front).

Please do not over-purchase tickets as there is a "no refunds" policy. There will be a chance to order additional tickets at a later time. Please note that there is a service fee for the purchase of additional tickets. There is a limited amount of seating on the floor and seats may be divided to accommodate your ticket order. If you have any difficulties ordering tickets, please contact the NHOH office. Tickets will be available for pick up at the parents' meeting on the morning of Friday, April 10, 2016.

Student Involvement

Student participation extends far past performing in the lū'au show. Our students begin preparing for the annual lū'au in the Fall semester. While school is always promoted as the first priority, students are encouraged to lend a helping hand to the success of the event. They have a number of opportunities to help with the lū'au. One way in which they can assist is by volunteering their time to become members of lū'au committees. There are over 30 committees to choose from.

After the lū'au performance and clean up on Saturday night, NHOH hosts a dinner for invited family, friends, NHOH members. This dinner is called After Party. Students are asked to contribute their time to helping various committees throughout the Fall and Spring semester. In exchange for their time, students will receive points. Students need to earn 40 points in order to be invited to the After Party dinner. This ensures participation within the club activities. The lū'au would not be a success if it weren't for every member of NHOH. It is not a difficult task to acquire 40 points. Each committee will give student volunteers points when they help with their committee. Every committee will give out a different amount of points depending on the task and time spent helping the committee. Students will be given many opportunities to accumulate points.

Lū'au Clean Up and After Party

After our wonderful lū'au performance, it is NHOH's responsibility to clean up the facilities used during the week. Students will be asked to take class pictures and island pictures immediately following the show. During and after picture taking, students and parents are kindly asked to help clean up the gym by sweeping, stacking chairs, packing costumes and props, and transporting them to NHOH storage facilities on campus.

Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors will be given class clean up duties. Each class will be expected to clean their assigned areas and assist in other areas needing additional help. Students are asked to stay in the gym to help clean up unless asked to report to other places on campus to prepare for After Party or help with unloading lū'au boxes to be neatly returned to NHOH storage facilities.

Meanwhile parents are invited to assist in the clean up. Many hands make light work. The faster clean up is completed, the quicker everyone can relax and enjoy 'ono food and good company. Typically, parents will eat before the students arrive and this is acceptable.

At the conclusion of clean up, students will be asked to report to the UC for dinner.
