Pacific University Oregon

SCHOOL of PHARMACY

PharmD Program Quality Indicators

On-Time Graduation Rates

Class of 2014

- 99 students were admitted in 2011 as the class of 2014.
- Of these 99 students, 94 graduated on-time (within three years).
  - The on-time graduation rate for the class of 2014 is 95%.
  - Five students (5%) are delayed in graduating and currently enrolled in the program.
  - The attrition rate for the class of 2014 is 0%.

NAPLEX Passing Rate

Class of 2014

- 100 Pacific University School of Pharmacy graduates attempted to pass the NAPLEX for the first time in 2014.
  - Of these 100 graduates, 92% passed.

Class of 2013

- 94 Pacific University School of Pharmacy graduates attempted to pass the NAPLEX for the first time in 2013.
  - Of these 94 graduates, 96.81% passed.

Class of 2012

- 96 Pacific University School of Pharmacy graduates attempted to pass the NAPLEX for the first time in 2012.
  - Of these 96 graduates, 95.83% passed.

Please refer to the NABP website for the most recent available data on NAPLEX and MPJE pass rates.

Residency Information

Class of 2014

- The preliminary data, as of July 2014, have indicated that the School's match rate increased to 62% (16/26) for PGY1 residency and to 100% (4/4) for alumni (PGY2 residency) in 2014.

Class of 2013

- 36 Pacific graduates (38.3% of cohort) completed PGY1 residency applications in 2013.
  - Of these, 16 (44.4%) were matched in the first round.

Master of Healthcare Administration (MHA) Dual Degree

Class of 2014 — Three PharmD students enrolled in the PharmD MHA Dual Degree program since January of 2013 graduated from the SOP in May, 2014 and from the MHA program in August, 2014.

Student Awards & Honors

Class of 2014 — Refer to this article for a list of award recipients for the PharmD graduating class of 2014.

Updated March 5, 2015