Pacific University’s Online ESOL Endorsement program for STEM Teachers
EL STEM

For middle and high school STEM teachers in our partner districts*

Online English to Speakers of Other Languages Endorsement program

Application fees and tuition are fully covered for all enrolled participants

$1,000 stipend upon successful completion of program & ESOL exam.

Rigorous graduate endorsement program requiring high level of commitment

*Participating Districts
Beaverton
Bethel
Eugene
Forest Grove
Hillsboro
Portland
Springfield
Woodburn

JUNE – AUGUST 2016  4 credits
Language Policy in ESOL education
Literacy and English-language learners

SEPTEMBER 2016 – JANUARY 2017  5 credits
Educational Linguistics for ESOL teachers
Foundations of ESOL Methods

FEBRUARY – JUNE 2017  6 credits
Cultural Constructs and Diversity
Methods, Assessment & Technology
Middle/high school supervised practicum

15 total credits. Classes offered asynchronously with occasional synchronous online meetings (scheduled at the participants’ convenience). On average, candidates need spend a minimum of ten hours per week for class time and assignment preparation. Due to National Professional Development Grant restrictions, participants must complete the program on time.

APPLY HERE
pacificu.edu/teach

APPLICATION DEADLINE  April 15, 2016
Program begins June 20, 2016