

TUALATIN ACADEMY @ PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

STUDENT APPLICATION FORM

Please submit to advisingcenter@pacificu.edu

Pacific University allows selected junior and senior- year high school students to enroll in Pacific University undergraduate courses on a space-available basis. Applicants register as Non-degree-seeking students and may enroll in a total of two university courses for credit during their high school experience*. No more than one course may be taken in a semester. Some high schools may grant graduation credit for courses taken in this program. [*Forest Grove High School (“FGHS”) sophomores may participate to access 2nd-year World Languages courses; FGHS students may take more than two foreign language courses for credit.] Enrollment will be confirmed on the day prior to the start of a given semester. Pacific University students have registration and enrollment priority. Certain courses are not available due to prerequisites, placement criteria, etc. Students must complete this application form for each semester they wish to participate.

NOTICE

As required by 20 USC 1232(g) (Family Education Rights and Privacy Act, "FERPA"), and ORS 326.565, Pacific University shall not disclose any information or records regarding participating students or their families that the university may learn or obtain in the course and scope of student participation in the Academy except as otherwise allowed by this document. The parties acknowledge that the university is a "school official" for purposes of FERPA and each high school's Student Records Policy and recognize that FERPA imposes strict penalties for improper disclosure or re-disclosure of confidential information ("PII") from education records for at least five years (34 CFR 99.33 (e)). Therefore, consistent with FERPA's requirements, PII obtained by University related to applicants and participating students enrolled in the Academy may be disclosed to a given student's high school and that student's parent or guardian but may not be re-disclosed to third parties without the written consent of a participating student's parent/guardian and must be used only for the purposes identified in this document.

Pacific University does not discriminate on the basis of sex, physical or mental disability, race, color, national origin, sexual orientation, age, religious preference or disabled veteran or Vietnam Era status in admission and access to, or treatment in employment, educational programs or activities as required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, or any other classification protected under state or federal law, or city ordinance. Questions or complaints may be directed to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, 2043 College Way, Forest Grove, OR 97116, (503) 352-2215
