

School of Communication Sciences and Disorders Strategic Plan 2019-2022

MISSION: (Approved by School of CSD January 2020, adopted March 2020):

The mission of the School of Communication Sciences and Disorders is to:

- develop a diverse, equitable, and inclusive workforce of collaborative professionals who are leaders in their communities;
- integrate science, theory, and the art of practice;
- inspire curiosity and cultivate critical thinking;
- promote the well-being of those we serve with humility and genuine care;
- curate authentic clinical experiences through reciprocal partnerships with diverse and underserved communities;
- advance scholarship to move the profession forward.

VALUES: (Approved January 2020, Adopted March 2020)

Community | Equity | Compassion | Critical Inquiry | Advocacy | Lived Experiences

TAGLINE: “Do the Good Work”

OVERARCHING GOALS:

The priorities of the School of Communication Sciences and Disorders support and sustain our mission, vision, and values.

Goal 1:

Achieve consistent development of excellent clinical, critical thinking, and professional communication skills

[Values – Critical Inquiry]

Goal 2:

Engage as a strong partner with local, regional, national, and international communities

[Values – Advocacy | Community]

Goal 3:

Support and sustain a diverse, inclusive, and caring environment

[Values – Equity | Compassion | Lived Experience]

Goal 4:

Promote collaboration and interprofessional engagement

[Values – Community | Critical Inquiry | Lived Experience]

Goal 5:

Build a culture of research and scholarship in the School of CSD

[Values – Critical Inquiry]

