VISION:
Changing practice by developing exceptional critical thinkers who become leaders in their diverse communities. (CONSENSUS 8/26/2015)

MISSION:
To serve our world by fostering active learning, using best practices with thriving community partnerships for an engaged and sustainable program. (CONSENSUS 8/26/2015)

VALUES: (CONSENSUS 8/26/2015)
✓ Advocacy (self, others, profession)
✓ Community (partnerships, service, engagement)
✓ Diversity
✓ Collaboration / Integration
✓ Critical Thinking (EBP, application, lifelong learning, flexibility, solid foundation, curiosity, inquiry)

TAGLINE: “Fine is not an option”

IMPERATIVES/GOALS: The priorities of the School of Communication Sciences and Disorders support and sustain our mission, vision, and values.

Goal 1:
Achieve consistent development of skills including clinical skills, critical thinking, writing, and oral presentation across students (Values - Critical Thinking)

Goal 2:
Contribute and engage in local, regional, national, and international communities (Values – Advocacy | Community)

Goal 3:
Programs support and sustain diversity and inclusion (Values – Diversity | Community)

Goal 4:
Promote collaboration and interprofessional engagement (Values - Collaboration/Integration)

Goal 5:
Build a culture of research and scholarship in the School of CSD (Values - Critical Thinking | Collaboration/Integration)