

Curriculum Vitae

Myron D. Smith, Au.D.

Education

- 2008 Doctor of Audiology (Distance Learning Program)
Arizona School of Health Sciences/A.T. Still University, Mesa, Arizona
- 1988 M.S. in Audiology
Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah
Thesis: Effects of a Person's Voice on the Noise Dose Received While Wearing Muff-Type Hearing Protectors
- 1984 B.S. in Communicative Disorders
Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah
- 1982 Associates Degree in General Education
Ricks College

Employment

- 2007- Present Staff Audiologist - Portland VA Medical Center, Portland, Oregon
- 1998-2003 Instructor – Portland State University (Spring Term)
Course: Objective Auditory Measures: Evoked Potentials and Tympanometry
- 1986-2007 Clinical Audiologist – Legacy Health Systems, Portland, Oregon
- 1987 Clinical Audiologist (one day/week), St. Helens ENT clinic, St. Helens, Oregon
- 1985-1986 Graduate Assistant, BYU, Provo, Utah
Responsibilities: Maintenance of Animal Lab: feeding, monitoring waste output, administering medications, and performing auditory brainstem evoked potentials on Guinea pigs.
- 1984-1986 Larson-Davis Labs, Pleasant Grove, Utah
Responsibilities: Assist scientist Daniel Johnson in field measurements of sound-level meters and dosimeters.

Professionally-Related Service

- 2015- President-Elect, Oregon Academy of Audiology.
- 2001- 2005 Governor's Advisory Committee on Early Hearing Loss Detection and Intervention (EHDI), representing Oregon Academy of Audiology (OAA).
- 1999-2001 Vice President of Scientific and Educational Affairs, Oregon Speech-language Hearing Association (OSHA).
- 1996-1998 Audiology representative on board of OSHA.

Professional Presentations

- April 2, 2013 Bone Conduction Audiometry: The “Zen” of Audiology
Marquam Hill Audiology Grand Rounds
- June 5, 2012 “PLF vs. Superior Canal Dehiscence: A Case Study”, co-presented with Heather Larson, Au.D.
Marquam Hill Audiology Grand Rounds
- April, 2007 “Vestibular Testing and Diagnosis”, co-presented with Heather Larson, Au.D., Portland State University chapter of National Student Speech-language Hearing Association (NSSLHA).
- October, 2000 “State of Audiology in Oregon”, roundtable moderator, Oregon Speech- language Hearing Association Conference.
- June, 1993 “Hearing Loss and Help: A Discussion”, co-presented with Sue Doucette, Au.D., Public Television, Portland, Oregon
- March, 1991 “Hearing Aids in the 90’s” Legacy Health Systems Community Services, Portland, Oregon
- 1988, 1995, 2001 “Hearing Aids and Hearing Loss”, Oregon Lions Sight and Hearing Foundation workshops.

Memberships in Professional Societies

American Academy of Audiology
Oregon Academy of Audiology

Personal Interests, Service, and Affiliations, past and present

Married with 3 children.
Former Girls Youth Soccer assistant coach.
Boy Scouts of America Assistant Scoutmaster, Scoutmaster, Venture Crew Adviser.
Bicycling, hiking, music (band’s name: Fossil Fools), church choir director.
LDS Mission to Sweden (1979-1981).