Pacific University String Project Presents:

Pacific University Summer Camp for Bowed String Instruments

Sunday, June 28th - Thursday, July 2nd
Music Building at Pacific University
Taylor-Meade Performing Arts Center

Pacific University in Forest Grove, OR is offering a five day long part-time music camp that focuses on playing bowed string instruments (violin, viola and cello). The theme of the camp will be based on the selected musical play in which beginning students will have an opportunity to explore string instruments, intermediate and advance students will have an opportunity to play in orchestra, while all students will have fun with learning new poems, songs and dances.

Times:
June 28th: 3 pm - 6 pm
June 29th, 30th & July 1st: 9 am - 12 pm
July 2nd: 9 am - 11:30 pm

Camp Concert
July 2nd from 12:30 pm - 1:15 pm

Classes Offered:
• Exploring String Instruments
  • This class is for students who never before played violin, viola or cello and would like to get experience with those instruments.
• Singing in the Rain
  • This class is for students who already play one of the string instruments and would like to get experience with playing in orchestra while also learning to sing, dance and act.

Teachers:
  Dr. Dijana Ihas
  Tyler Goldman

Registration Information:
• Registration Deadline: June 10th, 2015
• Cost: $80.00
• For the registration form and/or more details contact Dr. Ihas at dihas@pacificu.edu or (541) 513-7804