

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

Sara Hopkins-Powell Endowed Scholarship Fund

BACKGROUND

Dr. Sara Hopkins-Powell served as the first Executive Dean of the College of Health Professions and Vice Provost at Pacific University. Prior to her role at Pacific, Sara spent twelve years at Southern Oregon University, her last position was interim president. Sara has more than thirty-five years of experience as an educator, consultant, and manager in a variety of health care settings; she holds a bachelor's degree from The Ohio State University and Masters in Public Health and Doctorate in Philosophy from UC Berkeley.

John King also has a long history in health care and education. He spent over fifteen years with Legacy Health System in Portland, serving as chief executive officer for eight of those years. He received a bachelors degree from Dartmouth College and a Masters in Health Administration from the University of Minnesota. John has served on the Board of Trustees for Pacific University since 1999.

Both John and Sara share a passion for travel and expanding health care to developing communities.

The amount of the stipend awarded from the Scholarship Fund varies with the endowment.

USES AND PURPOSES

Distributions from this Fund shall be used to support both student and faculty international education opportunities and international students' education at Pacific. Preference will be given to students or initiatives with a demonstrated commitment to service, especially to underserved populations.

The uses and expenditures of this Fund shall be consistent with the policies and procedures of Pacific University. The Executive Dean of the College of Health Professions shall annually determine the uses of the endowment distributions and administer these distributions. Awards to student recipients will be distributed through Financial Aid.
