

Administration 1._.1 Sports Wagering Definition

According to the NCAA Manual, sports wagering includes placing, accepting or soliciting a wager of any type with any individual or organization on any intercollegiate, amateur or professional team or contest. Examples of sports wagering include, but are not limited to, the use of a bookmaker or parlay card; Internet sports wagering; auctions in which bids are placed on teams, individuals or contests; and pools or fantasy leagues in which an entry fee is required and there is an opportunity to win a prize. A wager is any agreement in which an individual or entity agrees to give up an item of value (e.g., cash, shirt, dinner) in exchange for the possibility of gaining another item of value.

1._.1 Sports Wagering Activities.

Thus, consistent with the NCAA policy and a strong belief in the importance of fair play, all of the faculty, staff and students of the Pacific University athletic training program may not participate in sports wagering activities or provide information to individuals involved in or associated with any type of sports wagering activities concerning intercollegiate, amateur or professional athletics competition.

1._. Sanctions. Violations of the sports wagering policy may result in disciplinary action as determined by the Program Director for the Athletic Training Program.
