TRAVEL & ACCOMMODATIONS
A number of airlines fly to Victoria/Vancouver Island (airport YYJ), including United Airlines, Air Canada and Horizon Air. Please check with your travel agent for air travel information. Ferry service to Vancouver Island is available from Vancouver, B.C., Seattle, Anacortes or Port Angeles. The Victoria Clipper, victoriaclipper.com, offers a daily crossing from Seattle to Victoria, B.C. Ferries offers crossings every one to two hours from Vancouver (Tsawassen) to Swartz Bay.

Travel to Canada
Though U.S. citizens do not need passports or visas to enter Canada, they need passports to re-enter the United States. The Departments of State and Homeland Security require that citizens of the United States, Canada, Mexico and Bermuda must present a passport to enter the United States when arriving by air, boat or car from any part of the Western Hemisphere. To obtain a passport, visit http://travel.state.gov/.

Hotel Grand Pacific
Located right on Victoria, British Columbia’s picturesque Inner Harbour, the Hotel Grand Pacific offers guests welcoming comfort, world-class facilities, an unbeatable location, and access to Victoria’s most exciting experiences.

One of the few hotels right on the Inner Harbour, and next to the landmark BC Legislature and Parliament Buildings, the Hotel Grand Pacific is just two blocks from Victoria’s downtown restaurant and shopping district, and five blocks from Fisherman’s Wharf—a working harbor surrounded by an array of casual food counters, unique shops, and water adventures including kayaking and whale watching. Those visiting on business will appreciate the short two-block walk to the Victoria Conference Centre.
