

Gender & Sexuality Studies Award: $2,500.00 a Year!

Pacific University offers awards of up to $2500 per year for incoming students choosing to minor in Gender and Sexuality Studies. Awards are renewable annually, for students continuing studies and active involvement in the program. Consideration is given to admitted incoming first-year and transfer students applying by March 1, in the spring prior to their fall matriculation to Pacific. Successful candidates must enroll at Pacific as a full-time undergraduate student in the academic year following their admission, and must subsequently pursue a minor in Gender and Sexuality Studies. Application and interview required. Contact Associate Director of Undergraduate Admissions, Tania Hand, at tania@pacificu.edu for additional information and eligibility requirements.
